About Watson Caring Science Institute

Watson Caring
Science Institute

The Watson Caring Science Institute (WCSI) is an international non-profit organization that advances the philosophies, theories, and practices of Human Caring/Caring Science. It was founded by Jean

Watson, Ph.D., RN, AHN-BC, FAAN, LL (AAN), who serves as founder and director. Focusing on research, education, praxis, leadership, and legacy, the institute aims to widen the development and understanding of Caring Science to inform our notion of quality care and healing environments. Currently, there are over 400 hospitals throughout the USA with many other partner healthcare systems globally using Caring Science and Human Caring Theory; there are now over 400 trained practitioner leaders, or Caritas Coaches®, worldwide. Texts on 'Watson's Theory of Caring' are taught in universities worldwide and translated into over seven languages. To become a National Caring Science System™ of WCSI, an organization must demonstrate specific criteria related to authentic human caring-healing practices for its whole community.
