“Grief Connects Us”

The Hawaii Association of Professional Nurses invite Nurse Educators, APRN’s, RN’s and Health Care Science colleagues to deepen their connection and alignment with their sacred self for self-renewal and deep self-caring guided by Caring Science scholarship to sustain a deeper caring healing relationship with self, others, and the community. The HAPN Caring Science Consortium is now a regional consortium of the Watson Caring Science Institute. The meetings are chaired by Dr. Joseph Giovannoni DNP, APRN, Watson Caring Science Scholar, adjunct professor of nursing at Brandman University Marybelle and S. Paul Musco School of Nursing and Health Professions and Dr. Marlienne Goldin DCS, RN, BS, MPA CNML, Watson Caring Science Scholar, WCSI Caritas Coach Faculty.

The gathering is free, but registration is encouraged. If you are interested in more information about the upcoming events and registration, please contact Dr. Giovannoni at josephgiovannoniinc@gmail.com. We are committed to helping the Consortium grow in ways that promote shared wisdom to restore the ethic of caring in health care system.
